The Leading Note Foundation exists in order to inspire music-making in our children within a great community setting - and the goal of the Foundation is to make this program available to all families.

With this in mind, once we have reviewed your application, a small fee may be requested based on your family's financial situation. This will help cover the many costs, such as teachers, instruments and rent, ensuring that this community program will continue to be available to children who would not otherwise be able to participate. Our program will remain very affordable to all families.
